

TF-AT01 Anti-fogging Agent

Product introduction:

TF-AT01 belongs to antifogging agent for PVC food wrap film/bag, the product has the following characteristics:

1. Excellent cold/thermal anti-fogging performance.
2. Good safety, in line with national standard GB9685-2016.
3. Good transparency, improve the transparency and glossiness of the PVC products.

Appearance:

Light yellow to yellowish brown liquid.

Range of application:

This product is suitable for PVC products such as PVC food wrap films/bags, food packaging films.

Dosage of reference:

1.5 ~ 2.0phr, The specific amount to be added should be adjusted according to the actual production formula and production equipment, and should be carried out before new customers use the product. Pilot tests are evaluated to identify the best processing and application conditions.

Package and Storage:

Packaging: 200kg/drum or 1000kg/drum.

Note:

At low temperatures, the product may experience solidification, which is a normal phenomenon. When the temperature rises, it will naturally return to a liquid state without affecting its use. Please pay attention to the storage temperature.

Attentions:

1. The product data is for reference only. If you had any technical or usage problems, please call us.
2. The oral or written technical suggestions offered by our company are all sincere. But the consumers have the responsibility to experiment with our products to justify whether they are suitable for the formulated craftwork and usage; as the craftwork condition for using the products is beyond our control, the consumers will take the whole responsibility.