

Various cartridge case cups and bullet jacket cups can be manufactured at desired standards at Altek Dokum facilities. Brass and tombac coils are brought ready for pressing after rolling, annealing and slitting processes.

Special pressing process is applied on coils by means of special cupping presses and molds. Cartridge case cups and bullet jacket cups are ready for shipping after heat treatment, washing, drying, inspection and packaging processes.

